

Our Guarantee

When you book a DJ, you shouldn't have to worry about whether they'll show up on time or what they'll be wearing when they do. That's why Rent A D.J. offers a no-amount due guarantee. If Rent A D.J. fails to meet any of these items, the only thing you will have to pay for your event is the deposit.

Rent A D.J. - We guarantee the DJ that will perform at your event or you will have no balance due. We do not have multiple systems and DJ's nor do we sell any events to other DJ companies. When you book Rent A D.J. you will meet and get to know the DJ that will perform at your event.

Along with this DJ guarantee we also guarantee the following or there will be no amount due for your event:

- Arrival Time – Rent A D.J. will arrive at least 15 minutes prior to the music starting if set up earlier in the day or at least 45 minutes prior to the event start time agreed to in the contract.
- Proper Attire - What you want Rent A D.J. to wear is something that is planned out in the pre-event questionnaire and consultations. Rent A D.J. guarantees that what is selected for attire will be worn.
- The special songs chosen for your event will be on-hand and will be played. For weddings, this includes the bridal couple dance, father daughter dance, and others.
- Songs from the do-not-play list will not be played at your event.
